SUBJECT: Bomb Incident at Embassy: Trial on February 21

The trial against the 42-year-old Bosnian Asim Cejvanovic, who carried explosives in a rucksack to a meeting at the Embassy on October 1, has been set for February 21. Cejvanovic is charged with having prepared a crime using explosives. A psychiatric court expert found that Cejvanovic, who reportedly has been a psychiatric patient in the past, was mentally fit at the time of the incident. The accused will remain in detention pending investigation.
